FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2024 SISTER CITIES INTERNATIONAL ALL AMERICAS SUMMIT

Washington, D.C. (April 22, 2024) — Sister Cities International is proud to announce the 2024 Sister Cities International All Americas Summit, an event dedicated to strengthening partnerships and fostering innovation across the Americas. Hosted by Sister Cities International, this summit will bring together leaders, policymakers, innovators, and citizen diplomats from diverse backgrounds to explore collaborative opportunities, exchange ideas, and address common challenges facing communities across the Western Hemisphere.

The summit, scheduled to take place from May 28-31, 2024, will feature a dynamic program of keynote speeches, panel discussions, interactive workshops, and networking sessions designed to inspire and empower attendees to create positive change in their communities. The summit will explore innovative approaches to addressing pressing issues such as sustainability, economic development, public health, education, and cultural exchange.

Two highlighted programs which include the SCI Academy, an integral component of each Sister Cities International Summit, illuminates SCI's history and goals while offering essential tools for success. It provides practical tips for strengthening existing partnerships and establishing new ones, showcasing best practices for sister cities locally and globally.

The Municipal Best Practices and Technical Exchange Seminar brings together municipal government officials to discuss common topics of interest and concern across the Americas. The session focuses on key areas like Cybersecurity, Ethics, Economic Development, and Community Policing. The summit emphasizes the significance of sister city relationships in promoting cross-cultural understanding and cooperation, offering insights from successful partnerships to inspire potential collaborations for growth and development.
